

ABSTRACT

USE OF MOTION DANCE CREATION OF DEVELOPMENT MOTION BASIS OF CHILDREN AGES 5-6 YEARS IN ECD NABIILAH BANDAR LAMPUNG

By

Uswatun Hasanah

The purpose of this study was to investigate the use of dance to the basic motion of children aged 5-6 years in early childhood Nabiilah Bandar Lampung academic year 2014/2015. This research used quantitative descriptive method. The research subjects of this study were 25 children. This study used a sampling technique saturated. The study design used one-shot case study. Data collection technique used observation and documentation. Analysis of data used percentages with the formula Rubrik. Criteria for the child's learning achievement level are grouped into four namely undeveloped with the percentage achievement of 0% - 25%, began to develop with the percentage achievement of 26% - 50%, has grown with the percentage achievement of 51% - 75%, according to expectations with a growing percentage of achievement of 76% - 100%. The results showed that the child's basic motor development can be improved by dance creations/activities.

Keywords: Development of Basic Motion, Creative Dance, Early Childhood