

ABSTRACT

THE RELATIONSHIPS DOMESTIC VIOLENCE THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE CHILDREN AT SUMUR PUTRI DISTRICT, BANDAR LAMPUNG CITY

by

Sebastian Akbar

This study aims to determine of the relationship domestic violence the development of the children. This research is conducted at Sumur Putri District, Bandar Lampung city, under the consideration that there are massive numbers of domestic violence happens in that district. The second is, the social status of residents there are heterogeneous (high, middle and low class) so that it can be easily identified through an overall view which can represent every element of people there. Besides, this research contributes a resolution to help to solve the domestic violence in that district that might related the development of the children. This type of research is explanatory with a quantitative approach. Sample size was 40 respondents. Data collection techniques in this study using questionnaires, interviews, and documentation, while data analysis was done by cross-tabulation analysis through statistical data processing programs, namely SPSS. Based on the research results, it is known that many family in Sumur Putri District did the domestic violence, but the domestic violence didn't related to development of the children in physics ar psychologys aspects.

Keywords: domestic violence, development of the children