Each certification teacher are required to meet the teaching hours are 24 hours a week as stipulated in Government Regulation No. 74 Year 2005 regarding Teachers. Therefore, the necessary supervision mechanisms for teachers certified to meet these obligations and did not foul in meeting teaching hours. The problems of this study are: (1) How is the supervision of the Department of Education of North Lampung district on the fulfillment of teaching hours certification teacher ? (2) Is the limiting factor for North Lampung District Education Office in overseeing the fulfillment of teaching hours certification teacher ?

The approach used is a matter of juridical normative and empirical approach. Data collected by field studies and literature. Data processing includes the data selection process, classification of data and compilation of data. Analysis of the data used is qualitative juridical analysis.

The results showed: (1) preventive supervision through socialization and guidance to certification teacher, which aims to make them understand and comply with the provisions of the certification of teachers teaching hours as stipulated Education Ministry Regulation No. 30 of 2011 concerning Amendment to the Regulation of the Minister of National Education No. 39 of 2009 on Compliance Workload of Teachers and Education Unit Supervisor. Besides reporting implemented by the school regarding the fulfillment of the certification of teachers teaching hours as a form of school to certification teacher to teach in schools. (2) The factors inhibiting the supervision of the Department of Education of North Lampung district on the fulfillment of the certification of teachers teaching hours consisting of: a) Less than optimal supervision of the Department of Education on the fulfillment of teaching hours 24 hours face to face, so that a gap for certification teacher to use the services of others in order to comply with the teaching hours. b) There implementation of teacher attendance recording technology in the learning process, so that the presence of teachers is still carried out manually, and it is used as a loophole for certification teacher for compliance violations teaching hours.

Suggestions in this study were: (1) the Head of Education of North Lampung regency is advisable to establish a special team to oversee certification teacher (2) Head of Education of North Lampung regency is recommended to realize procurement fingerprint in schools in order to monitor the presence of certification teacher in comply teaching hours.
