The following text is for question number 1-5

Ten to Five

Arief (bass), Robin (guitar), Poltak (drums) and Lea (vocal) formed TEN TO FIVE in late 1998 when they were studying in Perth, Australia. They used to voice, jam and make songs every Saturday from ten a.m until five p.m after studying.

In 2000, they returned to Indonesia but Lea resigned because she wanted to pursue a career and got married. Imel, with her good song-writing skill, came in to replace Lea, and she immediately found her place in the band. Imel brought her cousin, Didit, who also likes to write songs, making up the current TEN TO FIVE lineup. That was in 2001. In February 2004, they started recording their first album.

When creating song TEN TO FIVE does not use any spesific method, they can come up with the melodies first while jamming, then continue with the lyrics or the other way around. Ideas come up and develop during jam sessions with surprising outcomes. Imel creates most of the lyrics with additions from the other members of the band.

Hexa and I camped in the mountain last week. It was very beautiful and very quite there. The air was fresh. The location of our camp site was on the top of hill, so we could see the scenery around us. It was amazing. It was green everywhere. It was also easy to get water as it was near a small river. You see the water is as clear as a crystal. We brought a lot of food from home. There were some noodles, cans of sardines, soft drink, and biscuits. Hexa brought cooking utensils for cooking noodle.

On the first day, we spent our times setting up tent and exploring the surrounding area. I was happy to find that there were many campers there. At night, after we had dinner, we met other campers. We chatted and play guitar. It was fun meeting people who had the same hobby. It was not frightening at all at night in the forest as it was very noisy that night. We laughed and sang, and some campers even danced. We went to bed almost dawn. No wonder we got up late the following day. We hiked with others campers until afternoon. We did not realize that it was almost 5 in the afternoon and we had to go backhome soon. It was really nice. I planned to go there again on the next long holiday. I would ask other friends to join.

A theater is a place where people entertain the audience. The people who perform called actors and actresses, act in plays on a stage. A stage can be a raised platform, or it can be part of the floor in a room, either in the centre of the room or against the wall. The audience is very important part of the theatre because it is for audience that actors and actresses act, and the playwright writes. Without an audience, they are only rehearsing or practising.

A theatre can be anywhere-in homes, school auditorium, park and a hall. Theatre means action. In this text, theatre is used in connection with performances on stage by live actors and actresses. It is living theatre.
