

ABSTRACT

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES TO PLAY WITH FINE MOTOR SKILLS OF CHILDREN AGES 5-6 YEARS IN TK ISTIQLAL RAJABASA BANDAR LAMPUNG LESSON YEAR 2014/2015

By

SUTRI MEILANI

Problem research lack the fine motor skills of children aged 5-6 year. The research problem is whether there is a relationship between the activity of play development with fine motor skills. The study aims to determine the relationship between the activity of play development with fine motor skills.

Research using quantitative research, the type of explanatory research, correlation method. Data collection technique used observation techniques, the research instrument using observation sheet. The research sample of children aged 5-6 year kindergarten class B Rajabasa Istiqlal were 30 taken by purposive sampling technique, the type of data in the form of interval data. Data were analyzed using analysis of product moment correlation test.

The analysis showed a strong correlation between the activity of play development with motor skills.

Keywords : Playing, Fine Motor, Child.