

ABSTRACT

LEGAL PROTECTION AGAINST VICTIMS OF VIOLENCE LABOR INDONESIA ABROAD (STUDY IN THE PROVINCE BP3TKI LAMPUNG)

By

ARDI MUHARI

Indonesian workers who qualify for work abroad. Such as labor maids often treated poorly by the employer in the Foreign such as violence. Indonesian government agencies such as Lampung BP3TKI assigned to provide legal protection to migrant workers victims of crimes of violence on foreign affairs. Problems in this research : How can the legal protection given to victims of crime BP3TKI violence of Indonesian workers abroad and what is the limiting factor in providing legal protection for victims of criminal acts of violence of Indonesian workers abroad.

The method used by the author of normative juridical approach and empirical jurisdiction. The collection of data based on literature studies and field studies.

BNP2TKI and the Indonesian embassy in sync with BP3TKI Lampung provide legal safeguards in the form of medical rehabilitation assistance, social rehabilitation, and provide information to the return of victims to their families. As well as legal assistance / advocacy to victims through government attorney given by the chairman of the task force on protection of Indonesian citizens and the Indonesian embassy in prosecuting perpetrators of crimes of violence Indonesian workers overseas. Limiting factor in providing legal protection to migrant workers is different regulations and must be respected as political and diplomatic relations between States, as well as prospective workers who ignore preparation and departure briefing choose illegal labor recruitment agencies.

Suggestions from this study are expected to BP3TKI, BNP2TKI, Embassy, Community, and the police, establish better coordination with regard to the legal protection of migrant workers abroad. and held a socialization to the people who would be prospective workers in order to employ the services of labor brokers official of the government, as well as the assessment and development of regulatory protection of migrant workers overseas with current developments.

Keywords: Legal protection, Labor Indonesian overseas, Victims of crime.