

CHAPTER III CONSLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

3.1. Conclusions

Based on the observation, information and the experiences as long as the writer has field practice in Tourism and Culture Office of South Lampung, the writer can conclude that:

1. The Tourism and Culture Office hopefully will be able to make tourism places in South Lampung cooperate with other institution which has the authority about the development the tourism object in South |Lampung.
2. The Tourism and Culture Office creates the promotion in marketing strategy by the events in national and province scale in order to make success of the development and promotion concepts of tourism objects in South Lampung.
3. From the developing and promoting the tourism objects, The Tourism and Culture Office tries to make increase of original income distribution region, community income and country exchange.

3.2. Suggestions

1. The Tourism and Culture Office hopefully will be able to increase the development and promotion of tourism objects in South Lampung.
2. The Tourism and Culture Office hopefully will be able to give a good attention for the community about the important of tourism object for increase the original income distribution region of Lampung Province.
3. The Tourism and Culture Office is will be able to create good human resource that has international quality to improve the tourism objects in Lampung Province.
4. The Tourism and Culture Office hopefully will be able to have good cooperation between each institution and another office and also with the community in order to make success the development and promotion the tourism objects in South Lampung.