

MOTTO

Honestly I do not have any specific motto or special quote I should apply in my daily.

I just like some quotes which are motivating me to be brighter, because

One thing I know about life is the arts of passing the mysterious journey through our own path

(Komang Mega Susanti)

Even if you are the greatest of all sinners you will, with this boat of transcendental knowledge, cross the ocean of all this misery.

(Bhagavad Gita IV.36)
