

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Praise is for Allah SWT, the almighty God, for blessing the writer in finishing this script. Then, sholawat is for our Prophet Muhammad SAW, with his family, followers, and all Moslems. This script is presented as a partial fulfillment for S1 degree at the Language and Arts Department of the Teacher Training and Education Faculty in the University of Lampung.

This script entitled “The Correlation between Students’ Learning Strategies in Composing Narrative Text and Students’ Narrative Writing Competence at The First Grade of SMAN 5 Bandar Lampung” would never come into existence without any support and help from several outstanding people and institution. Therefore, the writer would like to express his deepest gratitude to:

1. Prof. Dr. Cucu Sutarsyah, M.A., as the writer’s first advisor and chairperson of the English Program, for his kindness and willingness to give his assistance, advices, ideas, motivation and scientific knowledge to the writer to finish the script.
2. Drs. Sudirman, M.Pd., as the writer’s second advisor, for his attention, patience, kindness, suggestion, ideas, motivation and scientific knowledge.
3. Dra. Flora Nainggolan, M.Pd., as the writer’s examiner, for her suggestion, ideas, and scientific knowledge.

4. Dra. Editha Gloria Simanjuntak as the writer's academic advisor.
5. All of Lecturers in English Education Study Program of Lampung University, who have shared the knowledge and experiences during my study at English Education Study Program of Lampung University.
6. Drs. Ahyak Toha, vice principal in curriculum of SMA Negeri 5 Bandar Lampung, for his kindness while the writer conducted this research.
7. Dra. Rahma Nilawaty, the English teacher of SMA Negeri 5 Bandar Lampung, for allowing the writer to use the class as the subjects of this research.
8. All students in class X 6 academic year 2010/2011 of SMA Negeri 5 Bandar Lampung.
