ABSTRACT

PERFORMANCE DISTRICT DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS OF MAKING DEVELOPMENT IN WEST TULANG BAWANG’S ROAD INFRASTRUCTURE

Oleh
Watik Astunik

One of the most important things in the achievement of organizational goals is the performance of the organization. Its own performance within the organization can be measured by the presence of supportive resources. Department of public works one public organization that works to repair and construction of roads has a responsibility in terms of performance, especially in the construction of road infrastructure.

It is the emphasis in this research that the Department of Public Works performance West Tulang Bawang in realizing the construction of road infrastructure. Researchers used several performance indicators belonging Dwiyanto public bureaucracy in analyzing this problem. This type of research is descriptive research with a qualitative approach.

In a research is known that the Public Works Department performance West Tulang Bawang in realizing the construction of road infrastructure is good enough in terms of productivity, although in terms of input there are still obstacles to the shortage of funds, facilities and infrastructure and employees. In the terms of responsiveness, the Department of Public Works West Tulang Bawang district responsive in responding to society needs. In terms of responsibility has also been very good, that the Public Works Department West Tulang Bawang are in accordance with the Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) in running development road ; as well as in terms of accountability in general are already accountable to what is the responsibility of the Public Works Department West Tulang Bawang and what the rights and obligations of West Tulang Bawang’s society.

Keywords: Performance, Development Road, Autonomy