

ABSTRACT

THE ATTITUDE OF POLITICAL ELITE PARTIES GOLONGAN KARYA OF INTERNAL CONFLICT GOLONGAN KARYA PARTIES (Studies on DPD I Lampung Province)

By

LENI YULIANI

The purpose of this study was to determine how attitudes of elite Golkar party against the party's internal conflicts DPD Golkar in Lampung Province. This research used descriptive method with a qualitative approach.\

The results shows attitudes of elite Golkar Party Lampung from three aspects: cognitive, affective and conative. The first is cognitive (knowledge) of which related to the chronology of the conflict, the causes of conflict, as well as their personal interest is expressed well with the characteristics of a good knowledge of the chronology of the conflict and trigger. The second aspect is the aspect of affective (feeling) of them against the stance taken by the dualism management, related to the reconciliation conditional attitude, as well as the possibility of peace between the two camps, the Golkar Party elite rational in determining support for their respective camps. The third aspect of conative (tendencies) including the next steps if the faction that supported winning, is to accommodate the party cadres from the opposite camp who meet the criteria for achievement, dedication, loyalty and Not Disgraced (PDLT).

Keywords: Attitude, Internal Conflicts Golkar Party.