

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In the name of Ida Sang Hyang Widhi Wasa, the Beneficent and Merciful. All praise is merely to mightiest Ida SHWW, the lord of the worlds, for the gracious mercy and tremendous blessings that enables me to accomplish this script. This research report, entitled the use of oral error correction in storytelling to improve students' speaking achievement at SMAN 1 Sidomulyo, is submitted to fulfill one of the requirements for obtaining the award of S-1 of English Education, the Department of Language and Art, Teacher Training and Education Faculty, University of Lampung.

In writing this script, the writer got a lot of guidance, suggestion, and many valuable things from many people. Therefore, the researcher would like to thank to the following people for their idea, time, and guidance for this script:

1. Dr. Ari Nurweni, M.A. as the chairperson of English Study Program.
2. Drs. Sudirman, M.Pd. as Advisor, who has patiently guided and directed the researcher until the completion of this script.
3. Drs. Deddy Supriady, M.Pd. as co-advisor, who has given guidance and supervision especially in correcting this script.
4. Ujang Suparman, M.A, Ph.D as the examiner, who has guided and suggestion for the improvement of the script.
5. The English Study Program Lecturers in University of Lampung

6. All of his beloved friends in English Education Study Program, especially for his close friends who always support him and always beside him all over happiness and sadness.
7. The last, the researcher would like to say thanks to classmates and all persons who cannot be mentioned individually here, who has greatly contributed toward the completion of this script.

Finally, the researcher realises that there are still some weaknesses in this script. Any correction, comments, and suggestion for the improvement of this script are always open-heartedly welcome and the writer hopes that this paper will be useful for the readers.
