

CURRICULUM VITAE

Aparel Sheka Risdanti was born in Jakarta, April 25th, 1988. She comes from a loveable family with two children and she is the oldest child of a gorgeous couple named Rislani Tony Ali and Solhawati. Both of his parents are entrepreneur. She has one beloved sister named Marshela Risdanti.

She attended SD Tunas Agung in West Jakarta, SMPN 224 Jakarta, and SMA Utama 3 Bandar Lampung. Having graduated from senior high school, she enrolled English Study Program of the Teacher Training and Education Faculty of Lampung University in 2007. In the second year of her study, she joined UKM-U English Society of Lampung University, which up to now brings her to organize, compete and adjudicate in local and national English competition. She has also offered her knowledge and skills in teaching English to some different levels of both formal and informal education institutions since the second year of her study. She taught English in SMPN 3 Bandar Lampung (Teaching Extracurricular and Practicum) and IEC Bandar Lampung. Currently, she is an English teacher at English First (EF) Bandar Lampung.

She was awarded a youth exchange program, The Ship of South East Asian Youth Program (SSEAYP) ASEAN-Japan from October to December 2008. During the youth exchange program, she went to some other countries around ASEAN and some prefectures in Japan, she also was listed as the chair person one of the activities named Club Activity, which had responsibilities to manage the traditional clubs from whole ASEAN-Japan countries in order they could share their cultures fun, creatively, and enjoyable. SSEAYP Director Award-General for Policies on Cohesive Society Cabinet Office Government of Japan for her contributed toward promoting and strengthening mutual understanding and friendship among youths of Southeast Asian countries and Japan.