ABSTRACT

The implementation process of the election of Governor of Lampung in 2014 was still a lot of controversy with the process so complicated that ultimately resulted elected leaders, after the long process, sprang DKPP decision relating to election of the Governor of Lampung in 2014. The verdict of DKPP generate convicted and fired Lampung Provincial Election Supervisory Board. The purpose of this research was to determine and analyze the strength of the hook with the decision DKPP Lampung gubernatorial election in 2014. In this study the authors discussed the use of theory and concepts; theory of legislation, the concept of the State institutions, the concept of an independent State institution using normative juridical research method, i.e. obtaining secondary data obtained from the study of literature, books and legislation.

Results of research and discussion shows that many violations in the elections in 2014 that resulted in the governor of Lampung in 2014 resulted in the termination of the Election Supervisory Board members Lampung province because it violates the code of ethics. Strength Honor Council Election decision final and binding give lessons to the election organizer Lampung Province.

General Election should be neutral, credible and high dedicated in holding Democratic Party mainly local elections. Strength of DKPP decision which is final and binding is helpful as a reference to the election organizers do their job better. Keywords: Verdict Strength, Honor Council Election, and Election Violations.

Keywords: Verdict Strength, Honor Council Election, Election Violations