

Appendix 15

OBSERVATION SHEET OF STUDENTS' ACTIVITIES
(3rd Cycle)

Topic : "Homework", "School Uniform", and "National Examination"
 Class : 2 Social 2
 Day/Date : Wednesday-Thursday, May 22nd – 23rd 2013

No	Students' Activities	What Happen?	Why?
1.	Pre-Activities 1. Interested in the opening of the class	They show their curiosities.	They become more excited and curious about what they will learn.
	2. Responding to the topic enthusiastically	done	They get 3 new topics to be learned.
2.	While-Activities 1. Paying attention to the teacher's explanation	done	There are new rules and new things to do by the students.
	Exploring 2. Responding to the teacher's questions about the topic enthusiastically	The students can answer it well.	These three topics are related to their daily life as a student.
	3. Actively involved in the exploring steps	done	The students get accustomed to do this step.
	Clustering 4. Following the teacher's instruction (work in group)	The teacher forms different group this time.	To make variation in doing the discussion with different people.
	5. Actively involved in the group discussion	Each group is active in doing the discussion.	Each 2 groups have different topic to be discussed.
	Simulating 6. Actively presenting the result of group discussion in front of the class	Each group has been active in presenting the result, arguing, criticizing.	The students will get extra score from the teacher if they are active.
	Valuing 7. Actively involved in the valuing steps	done	They get values from the topic through discussion and simulation.
	Evaluating 8. Able to evaluate what they have been done in the learning process	done	They can know what should be improved.
3.	Post-Activity 1. Able to summarize the material by responding to the teacher's question	done	Most of them understand the material given.

Observer

 Risky Endasari