

ABSTRACT

EVALUATION OF CURRICULUM IMPLEMENTATION OF NURSING DIPLOMA III HEALTH MINISTRY OF HEALTH POLYTECHNIC TANJUNG KARANG ACADEMIC YEAR 2011-2012

By ISRAMIHARTI

This study aimed to gain insight how well the implementation of the Diploma Nursing Program curriculum competency-based program planning in curriculum development, implementation of learning, and the achievement of competence in the learning outcomes of students of Department of Nursing Polytechnic Tanjungkarang Ministry of Health.

The study used a research evaluation of the Goal Oriented Evaluation Model or research-oriented goals. Subjects in this study included all nursing lecturer totaling 42 people. The variables of this research is the development of curriculum planning, implementation of learning, competence and student achievement. Methods for collecting data using questionnaires, observation, and documentation. Data were analyzed by descriptive quantitative research.

The results of the study are (1) planning on developing a competency-based curriculum "good", (2) the implementation of learning "good", (3) the achievement of competence in student learning outcomes " well once ".

Keywords: evaluation, goals, curriculum, competencies, nursing.