

ABSTRACT

MAPPING DATA MONOGRAPH DISTRICT OF PRINGSEWU IN 2014

By
Koko Setiawan

This study attempts to make a thematic map by using data monograph district of Pringsewu in the terms of (1) the location of the district office and village offices; (2) the location and number of public/private senior high school; (3) the location of health infrastructure; (4) the population based on religion; (5) population density; (6) land use; (7) the number of industry and; (8) the number of acceptors KB. This research uses descriptive method informative. The subject of this research is distric of Pringsewu. The researcher uses an administrative district map of Pringsewu (data spatial) and data a monograph district of Pringsewu (data attributes) as the object. The data collection technique which used by the researcher are documentation and observation and for data analysis the reseacher uses descriptive analysis informative. The results of this research are; (1) a location map of district office and village offices; (2) a location map and the number of public/private senior high school; (3) a location map of health infrastructure; (4) a population map based on the religion; (5) a population density map; (6) land use map; (7) a map of the number of industry and; (8) a map of the number acceptors KB. The conclusion in this research is data monograph district of Pringsewu can be presented in a map as an innovative presentation of information the District Pringsewu monograph.

Keywords: mapping, monograph districts, Pringsewu.