

ABSTRACT

CIVIL SOCIETY IN PERSPECTIVE

NURCHOLISH MADJID

GEMA STIAWAN

Since first coming to Indonesia in the 1990s, civil society and the responses received great appreciation from intellectual circles in Indonesia. Intellectual circles in Indonesia began to search for and study the concepts that come from the West. Various translations of the meaning of civil society emerging from intellectual circles in Indonesia. One translation of the meaning of civil society is civil society. This term was introduced by Anwar Ibrahim, and later developed by Indonesian intellectuals. But these efforts can be said to fail, because the definition of civil society is still close to the origin.

This study uses qualitative research methods with descriptive type. Where is the data source used in this study are the data obtained from literature studies and documentation study, namely by studying and analyzing the books, articles, magazines, websites etc. related to this research. Data collection techniques using documentary techniques. Meanwhile, in analyzing the data using content analysis techniques and interpretation methods hermeunetic

As an intellectual, Nurcholish Madjid always release the ideas of an independent, universal and inclusive. Including ideas about civil society. This is not independent of Nurcholish Madjid mindset that is open, modern and universal, especially in religious and political discourse. This mindset can not be separated from his family background, education and environment interact figures that she admires. Thus forming a figure that has Nurcholish Madjid typical thinking. This can be seen in the conception of civil society that he remove it.

Nurcholish Madjid provide different conceptions of other intellectuals of understanding of civil society. Using as reference the classical Islamic life as the foundation of civil society. Nurcholish Madjid managed to create a conception of civil society that stands alone and different from the civil society that come from the West. Conception of civil society was initiated by the Nurcholish Madjid, a collaboration of ideas and Nurcholish Madjid about modernity with Islamic theology is based on inclusiveness, which is typical of him.

According to Nurcholish Madjid have 6 (six) characteristics or conditions of a society can be said as a civil society, the six traits are: adherence to the law, tolerance, respect for the principles of pluralism, egalitarianism, an award based on merit, and openness of participation of all communities. According to Nurcholish Madjid, the sixth feature must be created, so that if the six traits or conditions can be implemented it will create a civilized order of society or civil society.

Keywords: civil society

ABSTRACT

CIVIL SOCIETY IN PERSPECTIVE

NURCHOLISH MADJID

GEMA STIAWAN

Since first coming to Indonesia in the 1990s, civil society and the responses received great appreciation from intellectuals in Indonesia. Intellectuals in Indonesia began to search for and study the concepts that come from the West. Various translations of the meaning of civil society emerging from intellectual circles in Indonesia. One translation of the meaning of civil society is civil society. This term was introduced by Anwar Ibrahim, and later developed by Indonesian intellectuals. But these efforts can be said to fail, because the definition of civil society is still close to the origin of the concept of civil society.

Different definitions of civil society initiated by Nurcholish Madjid. Nurcholish Madjid made the classical Islamic life as a picture of modern life or civilized society. Drafts issued by Nurcholish Madjid this makes the concept of civil society that initially did not differ significantly with the initial concept of civil society, a concept that stands alone and has a distinct historical foundation of civil society that come from the West.

This study uses qualitative research methods with descriptive type. Where is the data source used in this study are the data obtained from literature studies and documentation study, namely by studying and analyzing the books, articles, magazines, websites etc. related to this research. Data collection techniques using documentary techniques. Meanwhile, in analyzing the data using content analysis techniques and interpretation methods hermeunetics.

Results in this study is to determine what kind of picture of the concept of civil society in the perspective of Nurcholish Madjid. As a thinker as well as theologians, Nurcholish Madjid not quit thinking with a view religious. This view is not free from family influence, educational environment and the people who interact and admired by Nurcholish Madjid. Of understanding of civil society, Nurcholish Madjid made the lives of the people of Medina at the time of the prophet as an example of modern life that can be applied to the present. It is not released from Nurcholish Madjid fascination with classical Islamic life.

Key word: civil society