

ABSTRACT

Role of Spiritual Activity Night at the high school of AL – Kautsar in presenting Potential Motivation to Pass National Exam at Alumni 2009 (Studies in the Faculty of Social Student - University of Lampung to AL – Kautsar High School 2009 graduated)

by Yoana Amalia

The quality of education in Lampung province is increasing. This can be seen from the increasingly difficult of national exam at this time. AL - Kautsar high school teachers have a strategy for dealing with an increasingly difficult situation like this , with adding provision of mental and spiritual, because academic provision alone is not enough for the national exams . Al Kautsar High School create activities that aim to motivate children to be able to face their national exam, so that all students can pass it. The series of spiritual events is participants transcendental communication activities, such as fasting, praying, muhasabah, lectures, prayer, and forgiveness. Al-Kautsar High School is an Islamic -based schools so that the entire series of spiritual activities filled with a variety of muslims worships who have the benefits of motivation to pass the national exam.

Formulation of the problem in this study is " how is the role of a spiritual night activities at the high school of AL - Kautsar raises motivation to pass the national exam at 2009 Graduated". The purpose of this study was to describe the role of a spiritual night activities at the Al-Kautsar High School to raises motivation to pass on the alumnus of 2009. This type of research used in this study is a type of qualitative research . The data on the activities of the spiritual night at AL – Kautsar high is collected through in-depth interviews , field observations , and literature who were treated with the process of editing and interpretation are then analyzed by the data reduction techniques. .

This research is phenomenology , which is a study of the conscious experience of understanding to a phenomenon. Based on the results of research and discussion , there are several conclusions that a student does not need a good IQ but also must be balanced with the EQ and SQ for maximum results. Experience of 2009 graduated in Al-Kautsar High School was able to describe the role of spiritual activities to raises motivation to pass the national exam in their times.

Keywords : Motivation, Phenomenology, Communication Transcendental