Ten to Five

Arief (bass), Robin (guitar), Poltak (drums) and Lea (vocal) formed TEN TO FIVE in late 1998 when they were studying in Perth, Australia. They used to practice, jam, and make songs every Saturday from ten a.m. until five p.m. after studying.

In 2000, they returned to Indonesia but Lea resigned because she wanted to pursue a career and got married. Imel, with her good song-writing skill, came in to replace Lea, and she immediately found her place in the band. Imel brought her cousin, Didit, who also likes to write songs, making up the current TEN TO FIVE lineup. That was in 2001. In February 2004, they started recording their first album.

When creating songs TEN TO FIVE does not use any specific method, they can come up with the melodies first while jamming, then continue with the lyrics or the other way around. Ideas come up and develop during jam sessions with surprising outcomes. Imel creates most of the lyrics with additions from the other members of the band.

The Loss of Titanic

The great ship Titanic sailed for New York from Southampton on April 10th, 1912. She was carrying 1316 passengers and a crew of 891. Even by modern standards, the 4,000 ton Titanic was a colossal ship. At that time, however, she was not only the largest ship that had ever built, but was regarded as unsinkable, for she had sixteen water-tight compartments. Even if two of these were flooded, she would still be able to float. The tragic sinking of this great liner will always be remembered, for she went down on her first voyage with heavy loss of life.

Four days after setting out, while the Titanic was sailing across the ice waters of the North Atlantic, a huge iceberg was suddenly spotted by a look-out. After the alarm had been given, the great ship turned sharply to avoid a direct collision. The Titanic turned just in time, narrowly missing the immense wall of ice which rose over 100 feet out of the water beside her. Suddenly, there was a slight trembling sound from below, and the captain went down to see what had happened. The noise had been so faint that no one thought that the ship had been damage. Below, the captain realized to his horror that the Titanic was sinking rapidly, for five of her sixteen water-tight compartments had already been flooded "The order to abandon ship was given and hundreds of people plunged into the icy water. As there were not enough life-boats for everybody, 1500 lives were lost.

Question 18 – 20 refers to this text !

Hexa and I camped in the mountain last weekend. It was very beautiful and very quiet there. The water is fresh. The location of our camp site was on the top of a hill so we could see the scenery around us. It was amazing. It was green everywhere. It is easy to get water too as it was near a small river. You see the water is as clear as crystal. We brought a lot of food from our home. There were some noodles, cans of sardines, soft drink, and biscuits. Hexa brought cooking utensils to cook noodle.

In the first day. We spent our time setting up the tent and exploring surrounding area. I was happy to find that there were many campers there. At night, after we had dinner, we met the other campers. We chatted and played guitar. It was fun meeting people who had the same hobby. It was not frightening at all at the night in the forest as it was very noisy night. We laughed and sang even some campers danced. We went to bed almost down. No wonder we got up late the following day. We hiked with the other campers until afternoon. We didn't realize that it was 5 in the afternoon and we had to go back home soon.

It was really nice. I planned to go there again next holiday. I would ask other\ friend to join.

18. How many persons camped on the top of the hill?
- a. Two
  - b. Three
  - c. Some
  - d. Many
19. What is the scenery there like? It is ...
- a. greenly
  - b. very hot
  - c. threatening
  - d. fearful
20. Which statement is FALSE?
- a. There were only two persons camping in the hill.
  - b. The writer's friend brought food from home.
  - c. Hexa could cook noodle.
  - d. The night was exciting.
