

ABSTRACT

ANALYSIS ON THE ALLOCATION BUDGETS ROAD NETWORK DEVELOPMENT PESAWARAN DISTRICT

By

Neri Susanto

Basically, the level of economic development aimed at achieving a higher public prosperity and evenly on the entire society. Economic development is a process to encourage change in society to a better situation, so that this situation causes an increase in community income. Highway network caused various changes in the economic situation Pesawaran District, it is necessary to do research on the problem contained around expansion budget allocations to roads network, because the network highways increasingly big role in supporting activity all development sectors, as well as the very help growth achievement allocating resources optimally.

Based on the background described above, we formulated the following issues: Is Allocation Fund Budgets On The Road Network Development in the District Pesawaran Already In allot. The aim of this study is to determine the allocation of budget funds for the construction Pesawaran County highway network has been allocated in accordance with a set budget.

Based on the discussion of the budget allocation can be directed to ensuring development in the District Pesawaran, as for the allocation in order to realize the construction of a large impact on the welfare of society. Budget allocation can speed up the process of development when viewed from program development, budget funds are divided into allocations for development.

Of the overall accomplishment and execution of the construction of the highway network in Pesawaran District, where the level of achievement of the road network development has been the target of development with the overall development plan for the road network in the year 2010 to support economic development and accelerate the pace transportation rural communities in improving the rate of economic aspects.