

ABSTRACT

FREE SEX BEHAVIOR IN CIRCLES OF CHILD WHO WORK THE STREET

(Study at the places which the child usually rest in Bandar Lampung)

This research is purpose to describe ang explain about behavior of free sex that happen in circles of child who work on the street in Bandar Lampung

Tipe of this research is descriptive, and the location of this research is places in Bandar Lampung city which the child usually stop in. The population of this research is the child with total sample 52 people that spread in five places. The sample is certained with Simple Random Sampling technique in a propotional manner for each places. Technique to take data use questionnaire, observation, and documentation, but for analysis the data use singular tabulation with analyze the data use description manner. The result show that behavior of free sex in the child circles is apprehensive, because level free sex in they circles is up to 46,2% already. They get the information of free sex is from they friends, up to 51,9%. Factors that influence they are do that free sex is family's economy, unhermonic family up to 34,6%, level educated of their parent and themselves, and the latest is the child society.

Key word: street child, free sex, street life