Adolescence is a time of the election that will determine the future of a person. Not a bit of adolescents now are mired in problems. Not only occurs in teenagers, even adults on the many issues that deviate happen. One of the problems is the number of sexual deviations among the teenagers and adults. Such deviations may occur due to a psychological disorder or mental, can through association with environmental factors so other words gay or homosexual disease can be transmitted, it can also occur due to genetic or hereditary factors, and could be due to the individual's own desire to try something new who had never felt before.

The purpose of this study is to examine and analyze the behavior and lifestyle of the gay community in the society. Benefits of this research are as material information to the public regarding the depiction of gay life that need to be aware that the teens do not fall into sexual perversion. Research is a descriptive study using qualitative methods with 5 informants. Data were collected by using in-depth interviews, observation and documentation. The data analysis technique used is the data reduction, data display and conclusion.

The results of this study it can be concluded that gay is a mental illness that some people consider it taboo, but in contrast to urban communities are often found gay couples. Gay will behave open only to close friends and spouse only. Overt behavior toward his closest friends who are also fellow gay just to devote to each other what they experience in their partner or just looking for a new partner. Overt behavior to the spouse merely to meet the needs of his partner. Gay behavior while closed to the public due to privacy. Most of the gay life-style glamor. The glamorous lifestyle of a gay community usually mostly just pretending to look glamorous and luxurious in their community just because of reasons of prestige but the reality is inversely proportional to the existing reality. There are some who state economic support for a truly glamorous and luxurious life-style, and there are also some gay so is the state of the economy can not support for life-style glamor.
