

ABSTRACT
CULTURAL DEMOCRACY ON INTRA SCHOOL STUDENT ORGANIZATION AT SMAN 1 ABUNG SEMULI

By
BUDI CAHYONO

This research aims to assess the cultural democracy in the intra-school student organization (OSIS) and the school's role in the development of a democratic culture, as well as supporting and inhibiting factors in the development of a democratic culture. The method used in this research is a qualitative, by using case study approach.

The results of this research is the development of a democratic culture in the intra-school student organization (OSIS) run well by implementing of culture or democratic values of tolerance on intra-school student organization (OSIS) namely, freedom of speech, open, communication, respect each other and togetherness. In developing a democratic culture in the school council gives freedom of speech, teaching students to respect diversity, tolerance, and carry out the selection intra-school student organization (OSIS) and establish communication with students. Development of democratic culture in the council supported the existence of mutual respect differences, teachers who teach tolerance, confident attitude in the opinion of students, discipline, loyalty to the organization, mutual trust and realize common interests. Constraints in the development of a democratic culture is not confident in expressing an opinion on students, authoritarian and arrogant attitude of the school, the attitude is not willing to accept other people's opinions and attitudes of feeling amazing compared to their friends.

Keywords: culture, democracy, intra-school student organization