

ABSTRACT

IMPLEMENTATION OF GOOD GOVERNANCE PRINCIPLES IN THE PROCUREMENT OF GOODS AND SERVICES IN EQUIPMENT SECRETARIAT OF PRINGSEWU REGENCY

(Study On Procurement Of Television Year 2013)

By RODI HAYANI SAMSUN

Procurement of goods and services by government basically aims to improve the welfare of the community, should be carried out with reference to the principles of good governance, but in reality it is often overlooked and of corruption.

The purpose of this study is to analyze the implementation of good governance principles in the procurement of goods and Services in Equipment Secretariat of Pringsewu Regency

This study uses qualitative research types, with the parties taking part informant Equipment Pringsewu District Secretariat and auction participants. Data was collected by interviews and documentation. Data were then analyzed qualitatively through the stages of data reduction, data display and conclusion.

The results of this study indicate that the implementation of good governance principles in the procurement of goods and Services in Equipment Secretariat of Pringsewu Regency Year 2013, the implemented: (1) The principle of legal certainty (rule of law), namely the existence of a legal framework in the form of television procurement Presidential Regulation Number 70 of 2012 on the Second Amendment of Presidential Regulation No. 54 year 2010 on the Procurement of Goods / Services regulate the procedures for Procurement of Goods / Services. The implementation of the principle of legal certainty is required in all stages of the procurement television followed by the counterparty, the process of determining the winner and the winner of the appointment, which legitimized the determination letter by the Committing Officer so that the winning bidder has a strong legal basis for carrying out the procurement of the television (2) The principle of transparency, procurement television the year 2013 carried openly through an open tender process to be accessible to the general public, ranging from the announcement and the step of determining the winner. The values developed is efficient, effective, open, competitive, transparent, fair/non discriminatory and accountable.

Keywords: Implementation, Good Governance, Goods and Services