

ABSTRACT
RECONSTRUCTION PROCESS PLANNING REGULATORY FRAMEWORK
IN THE REGIONAL AUTONOMY
(STUDY IN THE FORMATION OF REGULATION IN THE REGENCY LAMPUNG MIDDLE)

by:
CHOIRUN NISA

This study aims to look at the planning of local regulations by Act 12 of 2011 and then reconstructed by building new construction by local planning documents to see implementation in the Regency Lampung Middle . This study uses a normative study , the method of data collection through the study of literature , and interviews . After the data is collected, the data is processed systematically and qualitatively analyzed descriptively . The method used in this thesis is a normative study with emphasis on the normative juridical approach that is based on legislation and research methods of qualitative analysis . The results indicate the need for discussion of new construction with the local planning regulations by rearranging the vision and mission of local government , the substance of the RPJM need dielaborasi in Prolegda to produce products in accordance with the laws of development policy in the field of legal substances in the Regency Lampung Middle

Keywords : Reconstruction Planning , Local regulations