ABSTRACT

THE EXISTENCE, ROLE AND FUNCTION OF INSTITUTIONS OF SPECIAL JOB FAIR IN VOCATIONAL SCHOOL
(Case Studies in SMK Negeri 1 Kalianda Kabupaten Lampung Selatan)

By:
DWI HARYANI

The research aims to analyze and describe the existence, role, function, success, obstacle the activity of LBKK SMK Negeri 1 Kalianda Kabupaten Lampung Selatan. It is a qualitative research. The data is obtained from observation, interview and documentation. The data obtained was set and given meaning then analyzed and described.

The result of research obtained 1) The management of LBKK included: the plan prepared by the technical instruction of BKK; organizing along with DU/DI and Disnakertrans; the implementations (looking for information about job vacancy, signing MOU with labor users, deployment of information of job vacancy, job training to the registered, recruitment by written test, health test and interview, the employment agreement to the accepted, distribution and placement of alumnus to the company) Monitoring (reporting to Disnakertrans periodically and LBKK monitoring to the alumnus in companies). 2) The roles of LBKK is (1) to help the enhancement of school quality; (2) to help school in obtaining confidence from people; (3) to bridge between school and DU/DI as the labor users; (5) to bridge school and students’ parents in solving the problem of employment; (6) to help alumnus to obtain job. 3) The function of LBKK is to implement the duties carried out by BKK in secondary education. 4) LBKK success is absorbed of alumnus have been worked. 5) The factors of inhibiting the implementation of the LBKK program is : (a) The lack of public knowledge about the role and function of LBKK in the educational units; (b) foundations, (c) Limitations of networks information owned by the manager of BKK; (d) Incompatibility between the abilities and skills of job seekers and job specification.

Key words: existence, role & function, institution of special job fair (LBKK)