

ABSTRACK

REGIONAL INSPECTORATE SUPERVISION OF PERFORMANCE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION TANGGAMUS

By

ADE ARIHANKA

Inspectorate office in Tanggamus have a function in monitoring the performance of local government. Where one mission is to be achieved by preventing the occurrence of irregularities in the implementation of local government management. Another function is to conduct surveillance, inspection, assessment and investigation of two principles, namely: Provincial Supervisory Board as a form of vertical, and the Regent as a source of revenue for the task, so as to support the implementation of the monitoring power use supervisory personnel or supervisory aide, who required the signing the warrant examination and assessment tasks. Investigation is being carried out by the Regional Inspectorate Tanggamus.

In this case the monitoring is focused on the Department of Education which Tanggamus It is well known that the current government has not been able to provide services to all children from kindergarten, elementary, junior high, high school and vocational school, because it is the role of parents and the community is in need in improving the quality of education, it is important to join efforts to educate the nation in accordance with the mandate of the Constitution 45 and Law No. 20 of 2003 on National Education System in nencapai seven (7) National Education Standards. On the other hand the educational potential Tanggamus however need to be socialized and inform the public in order to know the state and condition of the schools in Tanggamus in improving learners' competency.

The problems of this research is How the oversight Insepektorat Regional Office of Education Performance Against Tanggamus?. Seeing the formulation of the problem which is the goal of this research is to investigate the supervision Insepektorat Regional Office of Education Performance Against Tanggamus. The method used in this research is descriptive qualitative approach. Data used in this study is the use of primary data and secondary data.

Analysis of the implementation of the Regional Inspectorate oversight function Tanggamus can be concluded that monitoring results are still not good it can be seen from one of the indicators that leakage reduction indicator, waste and illegal fees as the quality and quantity of cases of irregularities, fraud, leakage, wastage can be reduced as functional monitoring reports and other monitoring report and the reduced level of error in the execution of the task is still far from the expected.

Keywords: Monitoring, Performance
