Abstract

Accelerating The Development of New Autonomous Regions

(A Case Study of The Western Pesisir District)

By

Julyan Fadhly

Autonomous regions are held in January 2001 through government regulation no. 22 1999, provides an opportunity for local governments to manage the resource potential in each area, with the aim to improve the welfare of the society. As the new autonomous regions, western Pesisir regency see that the tourism is an excellent resource, therefore Pesisir Barat regency acceleration of development in tourism. This research was intended to (1) To describe and analyze the accelerated development programs undertaken by the government district of the West Coast. (2) To describe the accelerated development programs in the West Coast District in accordance with the needs of local communities of the West Coast (3) describe any obstacles encountered in the development of new autonomous regions (DOB) This Method used is descriptive type with a qualitative approach. Data collection techniques used in this study with in-depth interviews and the results of this study focuses dokumentasi. Berdasarkan accelerated development of the western coastal District in focus on the tourism sector this is because, the tourism potential of the western Coast District reasonably well so as to provide benefits to the local district of the western coastal District

Keywords: Region autonomy, Accelerating the development of new autonomous regions