

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Alhamdulillah Rabbil 'Alamin. All praise belongs to Allah the merciful alone for blessing the writer health and faith to finish her undergraduate thesis entitled “ELT Learners’ Communication Strategies in EXCLUSIVE and Task-Based Class”. This thesis is presented to fulfill one of the requirements to accomplish S1 or undergraduate degree of English Education Study Program at University of Lampung.

The writer would not be able to finish this thesis without any support, encouragement, guidance, and assistance by several very important persons. Firstly, the writer would like to address her respect and gratitude to Prof. Ag. Bambang Setiyadi, M.A., Ph.D. as the writer’s first thesis adviser for his kindness, feedbacks, and valuable suggestions throughout the writing process. The best sincere gratitude is also extended to Budi Kadaryanto, S.Pd., M.A. as the writer’s second thesis adviser for his understanding, positive suggestions, ideas, encouragement, and friendliness in guiding the writer to finish the thesis and also for kindly offering to conduct observation in his classes. The writer also would like to express her gratefulness to her examiner, Hery Yufrizal, M.A., Ph.D., for his positive criticism and suggestions to make the thesis more qualified.

The researcher also wants to address her appreciation to all of the English Education Study Program Class of 2012 students for being cooperative during the research.

The writer addresses sincere gratefulness to a man named Kevin Pierce Jones, for his care and enthusiastic support whenever the writer faced obstacles and pessimism during the thesis writing process. The next appreciation also goes to the writer's closest friends in English Study Program: Desilya Anggraini, Fitriyani Amalia Rahadi, Rizki Amalia Ayuningtyas, Anwar Fadila, and Siti Amalina Santi—for sharing the happiness and going through hardships together for years and counting.

The greatest appreciation and honor are due to her parents, H. Deddy Susatyo, B.Sc. and Hj. Hatmiyati, for their infinite support and endless prayer for her. She is also thankful to her sisters: Deti Ratnasari, Riesky Meidyastuti, and Yosi Marta Selina—who always encourage her to focus in achieving a bright future.

Hopefully, this thesis can give a great contribution for educational development and inspires those who want to conduct further research.
