

CURRICULUM VITAE

The name of the writer is Tyas Hantia Febiani. She was born in Bandar Lampung on February 29th, 1992 as the fourth and the youngest daughter of H. Deddy Susatyo, B.Sc. and Hj. Hatmiyati.

She joined TK Taman Indria Teluk Betung in 1995. Then she entered SD Taman Siswa Teluk Betung in 1997 and graduated in 2003. She continued her study at SMPN 4 Bandar Lampung and graduated in 2006. Three years later (2009), she graduated from SMAN 2 Bandar Lampung.

She entered English Education Study Program at University of Lampung through early acceptance (PMDK) in 2009. In August 2011, she took one year academic leave and went to United States as she was accepted by American Indonesian Exchange Foundation (AMINEF) and World Learning as one of ten Indonesian grantees for a non-degree scholarship program sponsored by U.S. State Department, Global Undergraduate Program, for two semesters.

She studied Literature and Performing Arts at American University, Washington, D.C. Besides studying, she volunteered as a tutor of an after-school program at Tubman Elementary School where she taught fourth to sixth graders Arts, Bahasa Indonesia, and Mathematics. In spring of 2012, she volunteered for American University Abroad Office as American University Incoming Spring 2012

Exchange Students Assistant. She also interned at Ambassador Theater and joined American University Gospel Choir (AUGC). In April 2012, she participated in American University Gospel Concert in Kay Spiritual Life Center.

She returned to Indonesia in May 2012 and continued her study at UNILA's English Education Study Program with Class of 2010. From July to September 2013, she did her fieldwork program or KKN-KT at SMAN 1 Batu Brak, West Lampung. From September 2013 to June 2014, she was appointed as Vice President of Outgoing Exchange at AIESEC UNILA where she assisted Indonesian college students who wanted to participate in global community development programs abroad.