ABSTRACT

ANALYSIS OF THE POLICY OF THE BUDGET FOR EDUCATION IN THE METRO CITY (FISCAL YEAR 2001-2012)

By

RYAN ANDREY DOLOKSARIBU

This study aimed to determine and describe the education sector budget allocation in order to improve education and to know and describe the success rate of educational development in Metro City. This study uses secondary data time series, in the form annual data within the period 2001-2012. The analysis used descriptive quantitative. Metro State education allocation policy has been able to exceed the regulatory mandate of Law Number 20 Year 2003 on National. Education System which applies the minimum of 20% of the state budget and budget data, Metro City. Education indicators such as AMH, APS, APK, APM, TKS in Metro city has increased, in accordance with the increase in budget allocation for education.

Keywords: Education Sector Policy, Education Budget, Education Indicators.