

ABSTRACT

CAUSATIVE FACTORS OF ELEMENTARY STUDENTS WHO DO NOT CONTINUE TO JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL IN MARGA BATIN VILLAGE, WAWAY KARYA REGION, EAST LAMPUNG DISTRICT IN 2009-2012

BY

INDAH NOVITA DEWI

This research emphasizes in assessing about the causative factors of Elementary Students who do not continue to Junior High School in Marga Batin Village, Waway Karya Region, East Lampung District in 2009/2012. Subjects of this research are the parents of graduated elementary school students who do not continue to Junior High School. The research are using descriptive methode. Despite, this research are population research with the total population are 45 families. Data collecting technique which used by the writer are interviewing, documenting and giving questionnaire. Data that have been collected are being analysed in the form of percentage table as the basis interpretation in assessing the problem of formulation.

The result shows that the causative factors of Elementary Students who do not continue to Junior High School in Marga Batin Village, Waway Karya Region, East Lampung District in 2009-2012 are: 1) The low income of parents are around Rp. 300.000,-500.000,- month or 57,8% from the total respondent (45 families). From those total, the occupation as farmer are 57,8 %, trader 31,1% causing the graduated Elementary Students could not continue to Junior High School. 2) Parents who haveLow education level, 44% of them only graduated from Elementary School, make their children as graduated Elementary School Students could not continue to Junior High School. 3) The number of dependent children in the family are ≥ 3 children, around 64,4%, causing the graduated elementary school students could not continue to junior high school. 4) Playing environment and distance factors are not supporting the graduated elementary school students who do not continue to junior high school.