ABSTRACT

E-PLANNING AND E-BUDGETING IMPLEMENTATION
(A Qualitative Study in Lampung Province)

By

ELIA AGUSTA

This is a qualitative research which aimed to observe the implementation of e-planning and e-budgeting in Lampung Province through an empirical study that investigates readiness of using technology in governmental activity. This study is based on interview data collected from a total of 12 local government officials that located in Bandar Lampung, Metro, Pringsewu, Pesawaran, and Lampung Selatan also using Nvivo 12 as the analysis tool.

The findings in this study show that Lampung Province is ready to implement e-planning and e-budgeting, e-planning and e-budgeting in Lampung Province have been implemented for more than 10 years, improvement in education, human resources, and fund are necessary, then good corporate governance principles and society participation performs better during the implementation.

Keywords: e-government, e-planning, e-budgeting, accounting information systems, local government, good corporate governance, framing theory.