

ABSTRACT

INFLUENCE OF FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE AND GOOD CORPORATE GOVERNANCE ON MARKET VALUE OF THE FIRM LISTED IN IDX THE YEAR 2009 - 2013

by

Krisnahadi Prasetyo

The ownership structure is believed to influence the course of the company, which in turn affects the performance of the company in achieving corporate goals. GCG concept also appears to minimize the potential for fraud due to agency problems. The higher the expected managerial ownership management will make every effort for the benefit of shareholders. This is caused by the management will also benefit if the company makes a profit. This study aims to demonstrate empirically the influence of components of financial performance in the financial statements, and Good corporate governance of the company's market value of the companies listed in Indonesia Stock Exchange.

This study used a sample of all companies listed on the Indonesia Stock Exchange from 2009 to 2013 years. Samples taken as many as 34 companies that conducted by purposive sampling. Data collected through the documentation. Data were analyzed using multiple regression analysis with SPSS 17.0 software.

The study says that of all the independent variables are supposed to influence the market value of the company, only independent variable board size and board meetings that do not affect the market value of the company, while profitability, leverage, firm size and audit committee size significantly affect the value of market companies.

Keywords: company's market value, profitability, leverage, firm size, the size of the audit committee, the size of the independent board and board meetings.