

ABSTRACT

RELIGIOUS CONFLICT MANAGEMENT MODEL (Conflict Case Study Implementation Issuance of Building Permit (IMB) Grace Church Pentecostal Movement Kedaton Bandar Lampung)

by

FANNY PANGARIBUAN

This study aims to determine the model of conflict resolution that made the Pentecostal Movement Church of Grace in the process of obtaining a building permit (IMB). This research is qualitative. The primary data obtained through interviews and observations with the church, the community and members of FKUB. While secondary data obtained through government authorities handle the IMB and literature studies or literature. The results of this study show a wide range of social conflicts that occur in the process of building permit issuance, namely: (1) the villages that make IMB, (2) the refusal to public figures who have different beliefs with the church, and (3) political interests carried out by the government. Model of conflict resolution that has been done in accordance with the problems that occur are: (1) property, the church attempted to secure an obligation to provide a place of worship to others who do not agree, (2) Sharing, the church did several approaches to the public, community leaders and government to deliver all the desires and expectations in order to avoid widespread conflict and IMB can be realized (3) compromise, this is done by all parties concerned the conflict in order to resolve the conflict with the right solution (4) Conciliation, the church doing this handling model to the community leaders and the government. Make an effort to reconcile the desire of the parties in order to reach mutual agreement. And there is also medel conflict handling is done, namely: (5) Mediation, (6) Integration, (7) Conciliation.

Keywords: Conflict, Conflict, Conflict Management Model.