

ABSTRACT

ANALYSIS OF LEGAL PROTECTION FOR SALE ONLINE FRAUD VICTIM

by Fabiandi Cornelis

The buying and selling through the internet is now often done by people in Indonesia sometimes rise to the phenomenon of cyber crime crimes such as fraud, thus requiring special legal protection for victims of fraud and selling online. The problem in this study is how the legal protection for victims of fraud online purchase? and what are the factors that affect the legal protection for victims of fraud online purchase?

The method used by juridical normative and empirical. Data were collected through library research and field study. Informants in this study included investigators at Bandar Lampung Police, Attorney at Bandar Lampung District Attorney, and District Court Judge in Class IA Tanjungkarang.

The results of this study concluded that the legal protection of victims of crime and selling online is basically done through the efforts of the penal and non-penal. Efforts can be reached through the efforts of penal repression, while the non-penal reached by preventive. Repressive efforts done by that victim of criminal fraud can be reported by visiting the law enforcement agency for further proceedings. Further preventive measures carried out by providing socialization of legislation and legal counseling related to the use of technology and culture did not respond to requests for personal information via e-mail. Factors affecting the protection of victims of fraud online trading focused on the lack of adequate infrastructure, not maximal dissemination of laws and regulations related to the crime of cyber crime to the community, the quality of law enforcement resources and the culture of the people who are reluctant to provide reports and testimony.

The suggestions submitted that the Government of the Republic of Indonesia should include law enforcement officers in the education and training specifically to improve the quality and the capability for law enforcement agencies in exposing cases of cyber crime.

Keywords: Protection Law, Victims of Fraud, Purchase Online