ABSTRACT

CHARACTERISTICS OF SUGAR CANE FARMERS
IN NEGARA TULANG BAWANG VILLAGE
BUNGA MAYANG SUBDISTRICT
NORTH LAMPUNG DISTRICT
2014

By:

Dwi Agus Sari

This research aims to investigate the characteristics of sugar cane farmers in Negara Tulang Bawang village Bunga Mayang subdistrict North Lampung district in 2014 with studies of land area, land tenure, agricultural capital, crop production of sugar cane, rendemen, sugar cane farmers income, and poor farmers criteria.

This research used a descriptive research method. Population of 49 families and all of the sampled population. Collecting data using questionnaire techniques, documentation, and interviews. Analysis of data using frequency distribution.

The results of this research show that: most of the sugar cane farmers have the not too wide land area as many as 79.59% of the farmers, sugar cane farmers have their land tenure as many as 59.18% of the farmers, sugar cane farmers using small capital as many as 63.27% of the farmers, farmer's crop production is still low as many as 57.14% of the farmers, most of rendemen of sugar cane farmers low as many as 95.92% of the farmers, sugarcane farmers who have little income that is as many as 65.31% of farmers, and sugar cane farmers who include to the criteria of poor farmers as many as 55.10% of farmers.

Keywords: Characteristics, Farmer, Sugar cane