This research aims to examine the effect of CEO turnover and financial distress on earnings management in insurance companies listed on the Indonesia Stock Exchange in 2013-2022. This research is a type of quantitative research using secondary data from the Indonesian Stock Exchange and the official websites of each company. The sampling method used purposive sampling and a sample of 11 companies was obtained with an observation period of 10 years so that the total research observation data was 110 data. The data analysis technique used is multiple linear regression using SPSS 27 software. Based on the research results, it was found that CEO change and financial distress simultaneously influence earnings management. Partially changing CEO has no effect on earnings management. However, this research did not find any influence between the financial distress variable and earnings management.

Keywoard: earnings management; ceo turnover, financial distress
