

ABSTRACT

ANALYSIS OF THE FACTORS AFFECTING THE UNEMPLOYED EDUCATED IN LAMPUNG PROVINCE

By

Nurul Ulfa Kurnia Annisa

This study aimed to analyze the factors that influence the educated unemployed in Lampung Province with the independent variables of the human resources, formal employment, and wages. This study uses time series data from the years 2001-2014. The analytical tool used in this study is multiple regression with Ordinary Least Square (OLS). The results of this study indicate that the variable quality of human resources and formal sector employment variable positive and significant effect on unemployment educated in Lampung and variable wage rates positive and no significant effect on unemployment educated in Lampung Province.

Keywords: educated unemployment rate, the quality of human resources, formal sector employment, and wages.